If the arm does not fit nicely against the body, take 1 or 2 stitches further to join the arm to the body.

Rnd 31: 12sc, push the hook through the marked stitch of the arm AND in the next stitch on the body (photo 1), make 1 sc, repeat the same way with the next 6 stitches, 14sc, push the hook through the marked stitch of the arm AND in the next stitch on the body, make 1 sc, repeat the same way with the next 6 stitches, 2sc (42)

Fasten off, weave your thread through the front loops of the remaining stitches and pull. Hide all loose ends.

Facial expression:

Take a long thread in skin color, go in at the bottom of the head, and come out on the outside of the first eye (photo 1). Put your thread, clockwise, around the eye and get back in the head as where you came out (photo 2). Pull your thread so that the eye will lie "deeper". Now do the same on the inside of the eye. Tie a knot in your threads.

Repeat for the second eye.

Hide the ends.

Embroider the nose 1 row below the bottom of the eyes.

Embroider the mouth 2 rounds below the nose. Add some blush to the cheeks and glue some eyelashes on top of the eyes.

Hair:

In color of choice

Cut a number of 40 cm threads to make the hair. Insert your crochet hook into the head, (photo 1), take your thread double and pull it through (photo 2), wrap the thread around the hook and pull it through the loop (photo 3). Due to the thickness of the yarn that I used for the hair, I only had to do 1 row. I started on the 3rd round above the eyes and slanted downwards along the face towards the neck. I finished in round 19 (counted from the MR). If you have thinner yarn, do 2 or 3 rounds with
